

4th UST-USP Joint Symposium

Joint Symposium between the University of Saint Tomas (UST), in Manila, Philippines & the University of Shiga Prefecture (USP), in Hikone, Shiga, Japan

Date: March 4th(Thu)–5th(Fri), 2021

Place: Online (with Blackboard system)

Tentative program

Session 1 March 4th(Thu): Challenges in science education and research in the new normal (15 min oral presentation, streaming to Facebook Live)

Session 2 March 5th(Fri), morning:
Multifaceted introduction of Lake Biwa/Country report (Poster presentation including online short talk)

Session 3 March 5th, afternoon:
Scientific Presentations (15min oral presentation or poster presentation including online short talk)

Call for Abstract for all sessions

The UST-USP Joint Symposium covers a wide range of topics in Sustainable Development Goals. Graduate & Undergraduate Students, Post-Docs, Faculty staffs are encouraged to join the Symposium The text of the abstract should be less than 200 words and submitted per Email to the secretariat (secretariat.ust.usp@gmail.com) the until February 22.

Organizing Committee

Symposium Chair: Misako Urabe (urabe@ses.usp.ac.jp)

Takuya Takahashi (tak@ses.usp.ac.jp) Masahiro Maruo (maruo@ses.usp.ac.jp)

Secretariat: Emiko Harada (harada.e@ses.usp.ac.jp)

